QUESTION / COMMENT	STATE RESPONSE
1 May institutional indirect costs be requested in the project budget? If so, what is the applicable rate at which indirect costs may be calculated?	CMS has indicated that indirect costs will not ordinarily exceed 10%, and all proposed indirect costs must be sufficiently justified in the proposed budget narrative. If an entity supplies a share of the costs of a grant project, the portion of that share must be reported. Administrative costs are expected to be reasonable and explained in detail. Any indirect costs over 10% must be negotiated with CMS. Proof of indirect costs negotiations with CMS may be requested.

2 Is the stated funding limit inclusive of indirect costs, if collected?	Applicants may only request up to $1,000,000.00 in CMP funding for a project lasting up to 36 months. If CMP funding is being requested to pay for indirect costs, the indirect costs amount should be considered to be part of the project budget and should be included on the standardized State Excel Budget and Budget Details pages provided on the Tennessee Department of Health Funding Opportunities website.

3. RFA Amendment Effective Date. The revisions set forth herein shall be effective upon release. All other terms and conditions of this RFA not expressly amended herein shall remain in full force and effect.
