An applicant may not simultaneously have an active application file for two (2) different levels of licensure. If, subsequent to the initial application, an applicant initiates a new application for a different level of licensure, the original application file will be closed.
- (3) A temporary authorization to practice, pursuant to T.C.A. § 63-1-142, may be issued to an applicant following an initial determination by a Committee designee that the completed file evidences that the applicant has met all of the requirements for licensure, renewal or reinstatement. The temporary authorization is valid until the Committee and the Board review and make a final decision on the application, and is effective for a period of no more than six months.
- (4) If a completed application has been denied and ratified as such by the Board, the action shall become final and the following shall occur:
 - (a) A notification of the denial shall be sent by the Board's administrative office by certified mail return receipt requested. Specific reasons for denial will be stated, such as incomplete information, unofficial records, examination failure, or other matters judged insufficient for licensure, and such notification shall contain all the specific statutory or rule authorities for the denial.

 - (c) An applicant has a right to a contested case hearing if the licensure denial was based on subjective or discretionary criteria.
 - (d) An applicant may be granted a contested case hearing if licensure denial is based on objective, clearly defined criteria. If after review and attempted resolution by the Board's administrative staff, the licensure application cannot be approved and the reasons for continued denial present a genuine issue of fact and/or law which is appropriate for appeal, an appeal may be requested. Such request must be made in writing to the Board within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the notice of denial.
- (5) The Committee or its designee may delay a decision on licensure for any applicant from whom the Committee wishes additional information for the purpose of clarifying information previously submitted. The applicant's response must be made and received at the

- (b) Content – All client records, or summaries thereof, produced in the course of the practice of applied behavior analysis for all clients shall include information that is necessary to ensure that a subsequent reviewing or treating licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst can both ascertain the assessment and analysis and provide continuity of care for the client.

(c) Transfer –

1. Records of Licensed Behavior Analysts and Licensed Assistant Behavior Analysts Upon Death or Retirement - When a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst retires or dies while in practice, clients seen during the immediately preceding eighteen (18) months shall be notified by the licensee's authorized representative and be informed that upon authorization, copies of the records will be transferred to the new provider chosen by the client. This notification requirement shall not apply to a client when there have been fewer than two (2) client encounters within the immediately preceding eighteen (18) months.
2. Records of Licensed Behavior Analysts and Licensed Assistant Behavior Analysts upon Departure from a Group - The responsibility for notifying clients of a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst who leaves a group practice whether by death, retirement or departure shall be governed by the employment contract of the licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst.

3. Sale of an Applied Behavior Analyst Practice - A licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst or the estate of a deceased licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst may sell the elements that comprise his/her practice, one of which is its goodwill, i.e., the opportunity to take over the clients of the seller by purchasing the client records.  - (ii) Clients seen by the licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst during the immediately preceding eighteen (18) months shall be notified that the licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst (or the estate) is transferring the practice to another practitioner or entity who will retain custody of their records and that at their written request the copies of their records will be sent to another practitioner or entity of their choice. This notification requirement shall not apply to a client when there have been fewer than two (2) client encounters within the immediately preceding eighteen (18) months.
 4. Abandonment of Records – For purposes of this section of the rules, death of a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst shall not be considered as abandonment.  - (a) Formal Censure or Reprimand. This is a written action issued for a single occurrence and less severe violations. It is a formal disciplinary action.
 - (b) Probation. This is a formal disciplinary action which places a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst on close scrutiny for a fixed period of time. This action may be combined with conditions which must be met before probation will be lifted and/or which restrict the individual's activities during the probationary period.
 - (c) Suspension. This is a formal disciplinary action which suspends the right to practice for a fixed period of time. It contemplates re-entry into practice under the license previously issued.

An order of compliance is available only when a petitioner has completely complied with the conditions of a previously issued disciplinary order, including payment of civil penalties, completion of continuing education courses, or payment of administrative costs. If all conditions of the ordered discipline have been satisfied, or if no conditions have been placed on the license in addition to probation or suspension, the Board may consider a petition at its last meeting before the expiration of any such discipline. The Board, at its discretion, may require the petitioner to appear before granting such order. No discipline issued by the Board shall be lifted until the licensee petitions for and receives such order from the Board, which shall only be effective the original date the discipline was to expire, and in no event effective earlier than the date of petition, pursuant to this paragraph.
 - (a) The Committee and the Board will entertain petitions for an Order of Compliance as a supplement to a previously issued order upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in subparagraph (b) in only the following two (2) circumstances:

The Committee's consultant and legal staff, in their discretion, may require such signed statements to be notarized.
