

TENNESSEE BOARD OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

Policy Statement: Unreadable Fingerprints

In the event that an applicant's fingerprints are deemed unreadable by the Federal Bureau of Investigations' identification system, this Board will accept the name-based check provided by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigations.

Ratified by the Board of Occupational Therapy on March 12, 2009.

Janet M. Neely, COTA/L
Chair, Tennessee Board of Occupational Therapy