

Tennessee Department of Health – Division of Vital Records and Statistics
Affidavit to Correct or Amend a Tennessee Marriage Certificate

County Clerks should only correct errors made by their office. Include a copy of the document used to complete the Certificate of Marriage for corrections one year or more from the date of the marriage.

Applicants should only correct or amend items relating to themselves. For corrections over one year from the date of marriage, evidence is required to support the requested change. There is a $15.00 amendment fee for amendments six months or more from the date of the marriage.

☐ Check the box if this is a county clerk's error. [For county clerk's office use only.]
