

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

National Register of Historic Places
Continuation Sheet

Brannon, Luther, House
Name of Property
Anderson County, Tennessee
County and State
91001108
NR Reference Number

Request for Removal

The Luther Brannon House was listed in the National Register of Historic Places on September 5, 1991 for its significance under Criterion A in the area of Social History for its association with Oak Ridge's early development and under Criterion B in the area of Military for its association with General Leslie R. Groves. In February 2021, a new owner demolished the house.¹ The Luther Brannon House has lost the characteristics for which it was listed and therefore should be removed from the National Register of Historic Places.

Claudette Stager, Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer

Date

Signature of the Keeper

Date

¹ Benjamin Pounds, "Controversy over Demolition of Stone House," Oakridger, March 10, 2021, accessed March 12, 2021, <https://www.oakridger.com/story/news/2021/03/10/controversy-over-demolition-stone-house/6949271002/>.

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

National Register of Historic Places
Continuation Sheet

Brannon, Luther, House
Name of Property
Anderson County, Tennessee
County and State
91001108
NR Reference Number

Luther Brannon House Site after Demolition

Photo taken by Rebecca Schmitt, April 2, 2021