Annual Meeting/Breakfast

There was an open discussion on the new proposed annual breakfast changes. The proposal was to change the philanthropy to raise money for a sex trafficking organization in Nashville. The theme will be "Be the light in the Dark" to include a new look for emails and new decorations to match the theme of yellow and black. Second Harvest will still be a philanthropy event for TGMI. We are looking at May to fill the food banks since they seem to get low during the summer. This is especially important since families rely heavily on Second Harvest in the summer since kids are not in school to receive lunch.

- Felicia Orr- The suggested changes are a great idea and "on trend" at the moment
- Ronda-Wants to be included in the planning of the event
- Michelle-Wants to make sure the new class hasn't already started collecting food for Second Harvest if we are not going to collect items this year. Cyndi doesn't think any collection has begun, but is checking. Michelle also mentioned we donate to St. Jude each year.
- Carla-Decorations are not in the budget.
- Teresa-Against raising the price on the budget
- Alaina- Agrees with not raising the price. The decorations will come out of pocket. Others have agreed to help as well.
- Teresa-She likes the ideas proposed and agrees we should do a Second Harvest collection event in the spring.
- Scotty-Great topic, but doesn't agree with the timing and thinks the colors are more like Halloween. Alaina will make sure the colors don't look too Halloween.
- Marcus- Sent an email that he likes the topic, but not for the annual breakfast.
- Cyndi called for a voting on the new philanthropy and event changes: Alaina made a motion, Shana made the second, received all "aye", but one.

- Alaina- Appreciated everyone's time and openness to change.
