

Adult Protective Services Collaborative Response to Elder and Vulnerable Adult Abuse (CREVAA) Program

Policy 8.22

Effective: July 15, 2023

Introduction

The Collaborative Response to Elder and Vulnerable Adult Abuse program provides short-term, emergency services to those who are the victim of an alleged crime.

Scope

The purpose of the policy is to provide guidance on the operational aspects of the short-term, emergency services to those alleged to be a victim of crime.

Policy

Program Mission

The Collaborative Response to Elder and Vulnerable Adult Abuse (CREVAA) program will address unmet needs resulting from a crime against elderly and/or vulnerable adults and provide short-term emergency services to offer support, as allowed by the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA). This could include but is not limited to, assisting the client by:

- Delivering donated items
- Purchasing emergency groceries
- Relocation
- Emergency housing/shelter
- Referrals to other victim programs

The CREVAA program will respond to the emotional and physical needs of alleged victims of crime to stabilize their lives and reduce the risk of harm. CREVAA will make every effort to seamlessly locate, coordinate, and provide both emergency and long-term client-centered services and resources to vulnerable victims in the planning and service area.

In the event of a discrepancy or ambiguity regarding the CREVAA providers' duties, responsibilities, and performance hereunder, these items shall govern in Order of precedence below:

1. Any and all VOCA rules, regulations, policies, or appropriate guidance,
2. CREVAA Grant Contract,
3. Tennessee Department of Human Services (TDHS)/Adult Protective Services (APS) policy.

Program Non-Discrimination

All CREVAA providers receiving VOCA funds from the Office of Criminal Justice Programs (OCJP) must comply with the federal statutes and regulations that prohibit discrimination in federally assisted programs or activities. It is unlawful to discriminate against any employee, applicant for employment, or recipient or potential recipient of services pursuant to several federal acts, including but not limited to, the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Rehabilitations Act of 1973, USCA Title 38, Section 2012, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 as amended. In addition, CREVAA program funds may not be used to discriminate against or denigrate the religious or moral beliefs of any client or potential client.

Program Confidentiality of Records and Release of Information

CREVAA advocates shall comply with obligations under HIPAA, Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH), and any other relevant laws and regulations regarding privacy.
