

10-Week Life & Job Skills Training Program for Youth Exiting Foster Care

Making the transition from foster care to adult life and work can be a challenge. The Vocational Rehabilitation Program at the Tennessee Department of Human Services is offering a 10-week Life and Job Skills Training Program to support youth ages 16-21.

During weekly sessions, students will focus on topics and resources that build independence and job readiness:

- Life Skills
- Communication/Self-Advocacy
- Financial Literacy
- Meal Planning
- Problem-Solving
- Job Search and Applications
- Internships Opportunities
- Resource Fairs
