

SELF-EXCLUDE THROUGH THE TENNESSEE SPORTS WAGERING COUNCIL (SWC)

Block access to ALL online sportsbooks licensed in TN.

Self-exclusion is a voluntary step that blocks your ability to wager for a selected period. In Tennessee, you can exclude from just one sportsbook or choose statewide exclusion from ALL licensed Tennessee sportsbooks.

STEP 1

Open the sportsbook app or website and look for Responsible Gaming, Responsible Play, Player Protection, or Self-Exclusion.

STEP 2

Choose the self-exclusion option. Then follow the operator's identity-verification and confirmation steps.

STEP 3

If you cannot locate the option, contact the sportsbook's customer support and state clearly: "I want to self-exclude from wagering."

STEP 4

Before confirming, read the operator's terms carefully. An operator may apply an exclusion more broadly than Tennessee requires, including related platforms, other states, or land-based properties.
