

STATEWIDE MEANS STATEWIDE

You can choose to exclude yourself from online sports wagering with ALL operators licensed in Tennessee for the selected period.

IMPORTANT FACTS:

A sportsbook may have responsible-gaming rules that are stricter than Tennessee's statewide program.

An operator may extend the exclusion to its wagering or gaming services in other states and, in some cases, affiliated land-based properties.

Rewards or loyalty points may be affected or forfeited depending on the operator's rules.

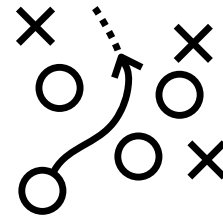

Self-exclusion is intended to create a meaningful barrier to gambling. Review the terms before signing so you understand the length and scope of the exclusion.

WHAT ABOUT DAILY FANTASY SPORTS?

Fantasy sports are different. Tennessee does not currently have one centralized self-exclusion program that covers every licensed fantasy sports operator. To self-exclude from fantasy sports, you must request exclusion directly from each fantasy operator you use. The Tennessee Sports Wagering Council maintains current instructions for licensed fantasy operators on its website.

A LARGER PLAN

Self-exclusion can create an important barrier between an urge to gamble and access to gambling. It does not have to be the only step. Consider combining it with financial safeguards, blocking software, support from trusted people, peer support, and professional treatment.
