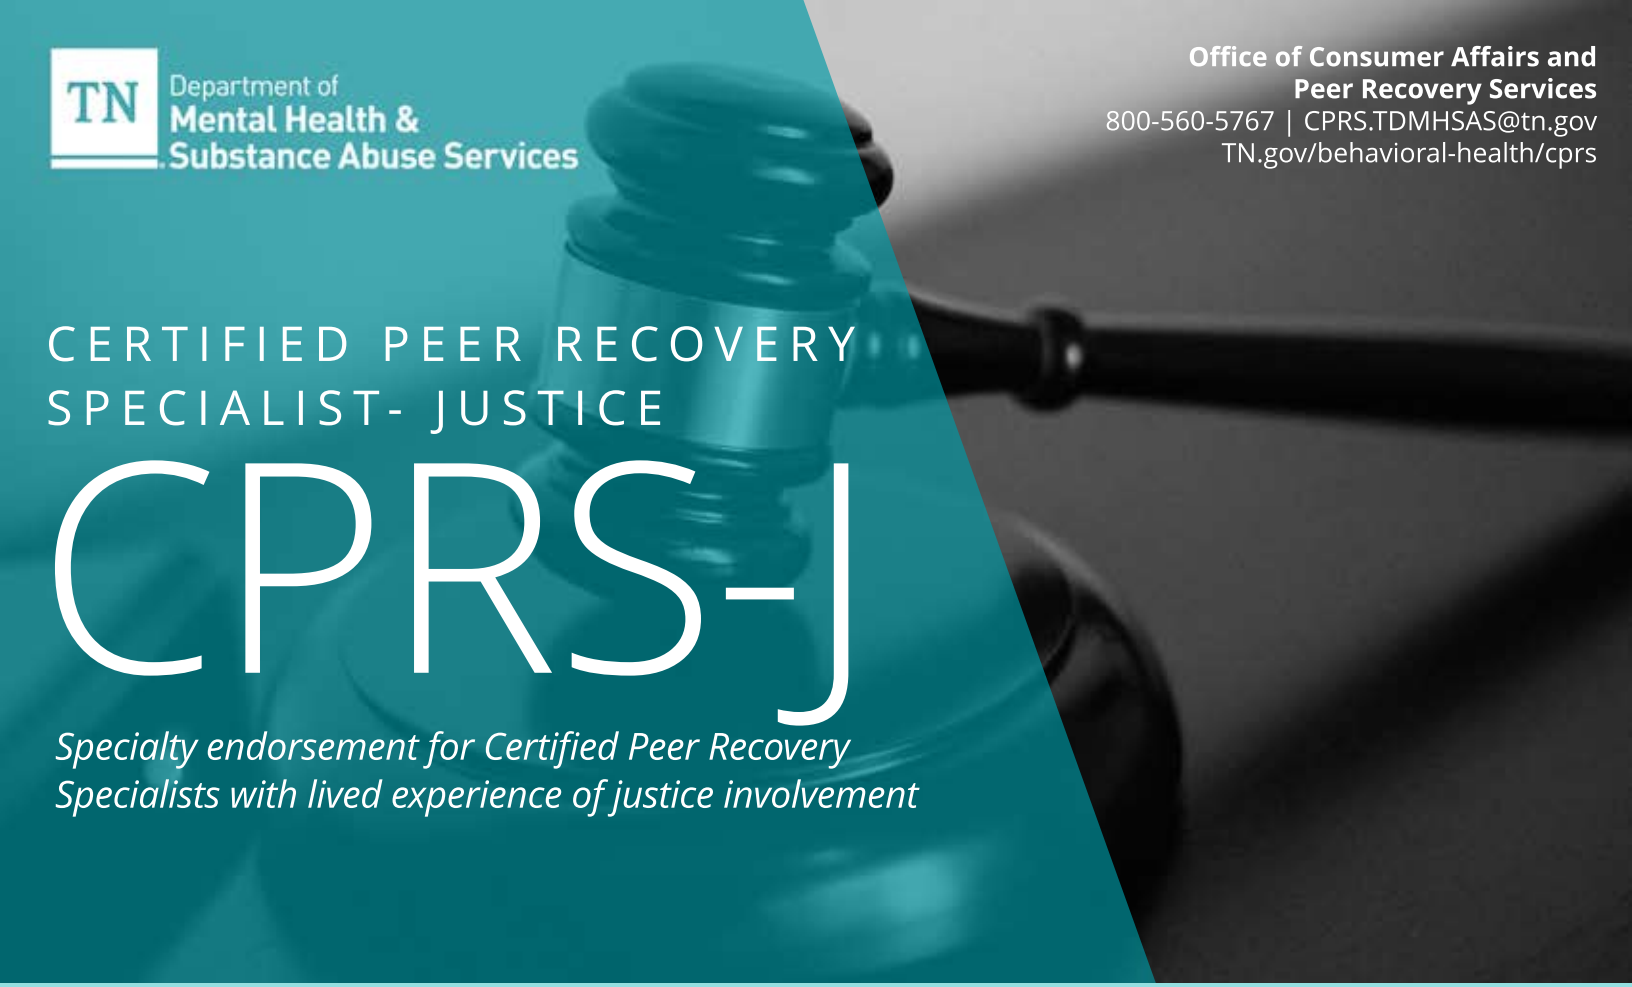
Department of Mental Health & Substance Abuse Services

Office of Consumer Affairs and Peer Recovery Services
800-560-5767 | CPRS.TDMHSAS@tn.gov
TN.gov/behavioral-health/cprs



CERTIFIED PEER RECOVERY SPECIALIST- JUSTICE

CPRS-J

Specialty endorsement for Certified Peer Recovery Specialists with lived experience of justice involvement

Tennessee's Certified Peer Recovery Specialist program ensures consistency, quality, and professionals in peer support services.

Current number of CPRS-J in Tennessee

105

Justice endorsement eligibility requirements

- Current certification as a CPRS
- Self-identification of having lived experience of justice involvement
- Desire to provide peer support to Tennesseans who are justice-involved across many settings (jails, communities, treatment programs, psychiatric facilities, probation offices, etc.)

Required Advanced Training

- Integrated Forensic Peer Recovery Specialist training
- 4 days of virtual training focusing on several domains, including recovery and wellness, advocacy, mentoring and education, and ethical responsibility, among others

Scan here to learn more

Lisa Ragan, Director
615-532-6732 | Lisa.Ragan@tn.gov

Michelle Webster, Peer Recovery Coordinator
615-741-7693 | Michelle.Webster@tn.gov