Atwood native enlists in Tennessee Army National Guard

ATWOOD, Tenn. – Pfc. Edward Humphries graduated from the Army’s Basic Combat Training and the Automated Logistics Specialist course at Fort Lee, Virginia, on September 2, 2021.

During this technical 12-week program, Humphries qualified as an Automated Logistics Specialist while training on overseeing incoming supplies and equipment and simplifying and standardizing maintenance data to raise the quality and accuracy of performance, cost and parts data.

“The National Guard has given me the best of both worlds,” said Humphries. “I get to serve my country and state while staying in Tennessee with my friends and family.”

Ables is a graduate of West Carroll High School and plans on using the Guard’s education benefits to attend the University of Memphis in the near future.
