Cookeville Soldier becomes vehicle mechanic

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. – Pfc. Quentin Dragon graduated from the Army’s Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, and Advanced Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic Training at Fort Lee, Virginia, on Feb. 27.

During this 13-week program, Dragon qualified as a wheeled vehicle mechanic learning to supervise and perform maintenance, repair, and recovery operations on wheeled vehicles and select armored vehicle. He is now assigned to Troop F, 278th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

“I plan to continue my education and serve in the Tennessee Army National Guard,” said Dragon.

Dragon is a graduate of Cookeville High School and his father also served in the U.S. military.
