

Tennessee National Guard Youth Action Council 2024 Application

What is the Youth Action Council?

The TNNG Youth Action Council (YAC) consists of members working together towards a common goal of identifying, defining, and addressing government policy and issues that contribute to the future of our military youth. Their purpose is to be actively involved in advocacy efforts in Tennessee and to help implement new ideas to enhance the quality of life for our service members and their families. The Child and Youth Program Coordinators (CYPC's), Michaela Gregory, will oversee this program and facilitate meetings and events.

CYP Contact information: Leslie Ramos Lopez, leslie.ramoslopez.ctr@army.mil. Office: 615.313.0542

Why do we need YAC?

The Youth Action Council is an essential part of the TN National Guard Child and Youth Program. The council has the ability to advocate and change policy that can potentially affect the estimated 30,000 military children in the state of Tennessee.

What makes the YAC different from other student organizations?

Members are given unique opportunities to represent fellow military children in our state. They will evaluate policies, advocate for change and have the opportunity to participate in other workshops/events that will build life skills and prepare them for the future. Please see below for anticipated YAC events and expected community involvement.

Youth Action Council events include:

- 4 Youth Action Council Meetings
- Visits to Capitol Hill (speaking to legislators and other government officials)
- ENGATN conference
- NAGATN conference
- Luncheon presentations
- Community events
- Other pop-up events

Community involvement:

- Raising awareness within your school and school district
- Speaking to local government officials
- Other advocacy efforts

Attendance to quarterly YAC meetings is crucial. Other events are voluntary, but participation is highly encouraged.
