STATE OF TENNESSEE
DEPARTMENT OF SAFETY AND HOMELAND SECURITY
OFFICE OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Presentation During the May Tennessee Public Utility Commission Conference:
TN Department of Safety & Homeland Security: Critical Infrastructure, Cybersecurity, and Grants

This presentation will provide the attendees a high-level introduction to the Department of Safety & Homeland Security's Office of Homeland Security, the Critical Infrastructure, Cybersecurity and Grant Divisions, current initiatives and projects, and resources the department offers. The Office of Homeland Security has expanded its responsibilities and offers sector specific (CI, Cyber, Grants) free resources to State and Local government entities and utilities.

James Cotter
Supervisory Special Agent
Cybersecurity Operations, Critical Infrastructure and Grants

James has over 25 years of law enforcement experience and has been with the Department of Safety & Homeland Security for the last 17.

In 2008, James joined the Tennessee Department of Safety & Homeland Security as an Agent. He was promoted in 2012 to Supervisory Intelligence Officer and Director of the Tennessee Fusion Center overseeing Homeland Security Intelligence Operations for the State. In 2017, he became the Special Agent Program Manager for Cyber Operations. In 2023, he was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent and supervises the department's cybersecurity, critical infrastructure, and grant divisions; and serves as an Emergency Services Coordinator for Emergency Support Function 17 (Cyber) and ESF-13 (law enforcement).

James is a graduate of the Naval Post Graduate School Fusion Center Leaders Program, the Southeast Command and Leadership Academy, holds a BS in Criminal Justice, and is a budding ethical hacker. He is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps with deployments to the Middle East, Africa, South and Central America.
