Attorney at Law Cindy Miller, LLC

Cindy Miller currently consults on projects in the energy and telecommunications arena. Her business, Cindy Miller, LLC, is located in Tallahassee, Florida. As a longtime attorney with the Florida Public Service Commission, she had the opportunity to work on numerous complex rulemakings, court challenges, and matters before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). She is currently President-Elect of the Southern Chapter, Energy Bar Association, and co-chair of the Florida Chapter of the Federal Communications Bar Association. At the Commission, she was responsible for monitoring legislation, federal energy and telecommunications actions, and recommending approaches in these matters. She made presentations at more than 200 Internal Affairs events. Comments to the FERC have focused on reliability and public policy matters related to energy delivery and state jurisdiction. She worked on an historic Commission rulemaking on a Renewable Portfolio Standard, which was completed but ultimately not ratified by the Legislature. She also served as Inspector General at the Florida Department of Management Services and worked as an attorney at the Greenberg

Taurig law firm (previously Roberts, Baggett, LaFace and Richard) in legislative matters. In addition, she worked in Washington, D.C., as a management analyst at the U.S. Office of Management and Budget.
