

SUT-155- Barn Building Materials are Subject to Sales Tax

This article is for informational purposes only.

Lumber and other building materials that are purchased for the purpose of building a barn on farm property are not exempt from sales tax. The building materials for the barn become realty upon installation; items that become realty upon installation do not qualify for the agricultural exemption.

Reference: Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-6-207.