

SUT-156- Cotton Ginning- Farming Exemption

This article is for informational purposes only.

A qualified farmer with an agricultural certificate of exemption purchases their own gin to gin the cotton they have grown. The cotton gin is machinery and equipment used directly and principally to produce an agricultural product and can be purchased tax exempt by the qualified farmer.