

SUT-82 - Government Certificate of Exemption

Government entities are not required to provide a numbered sales tax exemption certificate to make tax-exempt purchases in Tennessee. The Department of Revenue issues exempt governmental entities a generic Government Certificate of Exemption as documentation for records of Tennessee dealers. Tennessee dealers should accept the generic Government Certificate of Exemption from government entities.

References: Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-6-308.