Sales and Use Tax

May 2015

Highlights

- Effective July 1, 2015, the local sales tax rate changes in Henry County, Tenn.
- The new rate is 2.75%.
- The single article tax rate is also 2.75%, which is applicable to the sales price under certain conditions.

This notice provides information about a recent change in the local sales and use tax rate in Henry County, Tennessee.

Effective July 1, 2015, the governing body of Henry County has increased the local sales tax rate to 2.75% in all areas of the county. The tax change comes as a result of voters in the area approving a referendum.

The new rate will apply to all taxable sales of tangible personal property made on or after July 1, 2015. It also applies to the sale of taxable services for billing periods starting on or after July 1, 2015 by sellers located in Henry County and the cities of Paris, Cottage Grove, Henry, Puryear and McKenzie.

The corresponding local consumer use tax rate for people in all areas of Henry County also increases to 2.75%.

In Henry County, the local option tax rate is applicable to the first $1,600 of the sale price of any single article of tangible personal property sold, unless that item is specifically exempted from local tax or taxed at another rate by law. The local tax cap on sales of single articles of tangible personal property will be $44. The local rate is also applicable to the total sales price of any taxable service.

In addition, there is a state single article tax rate of 2.75% applicable to the sales price, from $1,600.01 up to and including $3,200, of any item of tangible personal property.
