317090		B. Does the state relieve the seller from any tax if it is determined that the purchaser improperly claimed an exemption and hold the purchaser liable for the tax, assuming the exceptions in the section?	Yes	T.C.A. 67-6-409 (b)(1)	2007 P.C. 602 Sec. 103 Eft. 1-1-08

317100		C. Does the state relieve a seller of the tax otherwise applicable if the seller obtains a fully completed exemption certificate or captures the relevant data elements required under the Agreement within 90 days subsequent to the date of sale?	Yes	T.C.A. 67-6-409 (b)(1)		Tennessee has not yet adopted legislation defining the time period for "time of sale" as within 90 days of the sale. The Department currently interprets "at the time of purchase" to mean that sellers must obtain a fully completed certificate or the identifying information in electronic format within 90 days subsequent to the time of purchase. Absent fraud or illegal solicitation, when the seller obtains a fully completed certificate at the time of sale or within 90 days subsequent to the time of sale, the seller is not liable for sales if it is determined the purchaser improperly claimed an exemption.
317110	CRIC INTERPRETIVE OPINION 2011-3	D.1. Does the state provide the seller with 120 days subsequent to a request for substantiation by a state, if the seller has not obtained an exemption certificate as provided in C, to obtain an exemption certificate or other information establishing the transaction was not subject to tax?	Yes	T.C.A. 67-1-1501 (b)		Tennessee has not yet adopted legislation for the 90-day period for obtaining exemption certificates at the "time of sale or purchase" or the subsequent 120-day period for sellers under audit that failed to obtain exemption certificates within the 90-day period to substantiate exemption for non-taxed sales. An audited seller may, within the statute of limitations for such audit, substantiate an exemption for nontaxed sales.

317120		D.2. Subsequent to the 90-day period provided in C, does the state relieve a seller of the tax for exemption certificates taken in good faith or other information establishing the transaction was not subject to tax that are obtained by the seller as provided in D.1.?	Yes			Tennessee has not yet adopted legislation defining the good faith standard and its application to exemption documentation obtained after the 90-day period. Currently, when a fully completed certificate or electronic identifying information is obtained by the seller after the 90 days following the date of the sale, the seller is liable for tax unless the certificate or electronic identifying information was taken in good faith.
317130		G. Does the state post the Streamlined Exemption Certificate on its website?	Yes
317140	The answer to this question does not impact certification, but it would provide useful information to taxpayers.	2.
