
Report on Teacher Characteristics and Effectiveness

The Background:

The Office of Research and Policy in the Tennessee Department of Education will present data and findings from internal research projects. This information is related to current teacher compensation policy and the correlation to student TVAAS performance.

The report will highlight areas such as years of teacher experience, level of teacher education, and teacher salary level.

The Recommendation:

For informational purposes only, no action required.