

Tennessee Education Association

The Background:

Ms. Gera Summerford, the president of the Tennessee Education Association, will address the State Board of Education on the issue of value-added student learning data and the Tennessee Value Added Assessment System.

The Recommendation:

For information purposes; no action required.