

Lindsay Walton Restoration

The Background:

Facts: In 2015, Educator's license was revoked for directing another educator to sign an administrator's signature on IEPs. On July 5, 2018, Educator submitted her application to restore her Tennessee educator license. Since the revocation of her license, Educator has been working in post-secondary education as STEM Success Center Manager at Maryville College overseeing students that were awarded scholarships from National Science Foundation and managing the tutor center. Educator also works as an adjunct professor at Pellissippi State Community College teaching academic and professional reading and college success. Educator has a support letter from Blount County, and they are aware of the situation that lead to her license being revoked.

Status: Respondent was notified by electronic mail on September 10, 2018, of the Board staff's recommendation to grant restoration of her license at the Board's next regularly scheduled meeting.

The Recommendation:

Pursuant to Board Policy 5.500, the Board staff recommends that Educator's license be restored based upon the policy considerations deemed relevant by the Board to show that an educator has rehabilitated for license restoration.
