

Robert Bennett
Suspension, Three (3) Months with Professional Development

The Background:

Prior History: N/A

Facts: Mr. Bennett was reported to administration for allegedly using inappropriate language in class and saying that he thought a student was gay. Upon learning of the complaint, Mr. Bennett had a conversation with his class in which he discouraged students from complaining to administration about him. Mr. Bennett told the class that if they said “Mr. Bob was mean to us” then they would have a discussion the students would not like and implied that it could impact their grades. He also pulled a student out of another class to talk to him one-on-one about his disappointment with the student for reporting him to administration.
