

Tennessee K-12 Physical Education Standards

The Tennessee Physical Education Standards document is divided into three (3) documents, one for each of the following grade bands: Grades K-5, Grades 6-8, and Grades 9-12. Each set of standards was written by teams of Tennessee physical education teachers, curriculum leaders, and higher education faculty as convened by the Tennessee Department of Education.

The Physical Education Standards represent the skill, knowledge, or behavior outcome of the student at the completion of a grade. Creating developmentally appropriate learning experiences that meet the standard is the responsibility of the physical education teacher and in alignment with school district documents. Each standard is observable and measurable and therefore can be assessed.

To effectively use the document, the following are key definitions or descriptions in reference to the format.

Component: a grouping of similar skills, knowledge, or behaviors. Each document has components specific to the grade level.

Subcomponent: a more refined grouping of similar skills, knowledge, or behaviors within a component. Each subcomponent is identified by a title.

Standard: a described skill, knowledge, or behavior as listed within subcomponent and grade level.

GRADES 6-8

The Tennessee Physical Education Standards Grades 6-8 document is divided into seven (7) groups of games classifications and physical activities. Standards codes are based on the three learning domains: Movement Performance (MP; psychomotor/skill domain); Cognitive Concepts (CC; cognitive domain); and Affective (A; affective domain).

Teachers can easily and effectively facilitate learning and assess all domains within units based on games classifications/physical activities. Standards are aligned based on teaching and learning concepts, including both Movement Performance (MP; psychomotor/skill domain) and Cognitive Concepts (CC; cognitive domain) for each lesson focus within the games classification or physical activity to strengthen student outcomes.

Example: Invasion Games: Defense

MP.13.6 Transitions from offense to defense and closes immediate space of the ball carrier in small-sided modified games.

CC.13.6 Explains the importance of a quick transition from offense to defense and why closing the immediate space of the ball carrier is critical.

Within the lesson focus, "Invasion Games: Defense" (13), these standards are developmentally appropriate for grade 6 (6).

Key Ideas:

- 1) Mastery of all standards is dependent on number of class meetings per year. Modifications may be necessary.
- 2) The standards need not be taught in the order presented. However, the sequencing of the four game types (target, striking/fielding, net/wall, and invasion) are listed in order of increasing difficulty and complexity regarding designing skill practice and skill acquisition.

component - a grouping of similar skills, knowledge, or behaviors critical elements - the necessary movements that create sequence to skill development and attainment cues - short words or phrases to remind students of correct movements educational gymnastics - using the body to perform movement challenges against the force of gravity which are individualized for each student's current level of readiness and needs; balance and transfer of weight concepts are prominent effort - qualities which address how the body moves including time (fast, slow), force (strong, light), and flow (smooth, jerky, ongoing) extensions - moving arms or legs away from the body in various movements (e.g., near, far)

flow - quality of movement, bound (stoppable) and free (unstoppable)

inverted balance - head is lower than most of the body mature pattern - movement which consistently includes all or nearly all of the critical elements of a skill movement concepts - body awareness, space, qualities of movement, and relationships inherent to all movement muscular tension - using muscular tightness to maintain a certain position outcome - what students are expected to know and/or be able to do at the end of a specific grade level small-sided games/activities - activities which focus on a particular skill and involve a smaller group (1-5 persons) static balance - showing control by maintaining a position for a short amount of time through manipulating the body's base of support and center of gravity

subcomponent - a more refined grouping of similar skills, knowledge, or behaviors within a component
