Updated November 2019

¹The State Board of Education voted to overturn the decision of Memphis City/Shelby County Unified to deny the applications of the City University Schools as one vote.

²The State Board of Education voted to overturn the decision of Memphis City/Shelby County Unified to deny the applications of the W.E.B. Dubois Consortium Schools as one vote.

³In 2014, the State Board of Education became an appellate authorizer of charter schools in districts with at least one priority school on the current or preceeding list. After the Board's vote, the charter school and LEA can agree within 30 calendar days that the LEA will oversee the school.
