

Proposed Corrections to an Amended Application Submitted on Appeal

Pursuant to T.C.A. § 49-13-108(b)(4), a charter school sponsor may propose corrections to its amended application upon appeal to the State Board of Education (“State Board”). In accordance with State Board policy 2.500 – Charter School Appeals, the State Board will only accept corrections that are minor in nature such as typographical, grammatical, or transposing. The State Board will review all proposed corrections in accordance with State Board policy 2.500 – Charter School Appeals and T.C.A. § 43-13-108(b)(4) and notify the sponsor if the corrections will be accepted. If the State Board does not accept a proposed correction, the State Board will redact it from the amended application.

Sponsors shall not be permitted to make corrections to the following sections of the amended application:

- Section 1.1 School Mission and Vision;
- Section 1.2 Enrollment Summary
- Section 1.3 Academic Focus and Plan;
- Section 1.4 Academic Performance Standards
