The Helen DeVos College of Education seeks to promote practices and programs that facilitate teaching and learning. This occurs in the classroom and outside of the classroom through modeling best practice, encouraging experimentation and innovation, research, and facilitating programs that positively affect the learner in his/her environment. The mission of the Lee University Teacher Education Program is to prepare candidates who are Lifelong learners, Effective educators, and Ethical practitioners. The objective is to produce teachers who (1) display a broad general background in liberal education, (2) demonstrate thorough preparation in specific academic disciplines, (3) plan and teach effectively, and (4) view teaching as an area of Christian service.

No Overall Performance Ratings This Year

In previous years, EPPs received an overall rating based on their performance in the Report Card's scored domains. Due to the lack of teacher evaluation data from the 2019-20 school year and the continued impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on public schools during the 2020-21 school year, EPPs are not receiving an overall rating this year.

Employment

The Employment domain evaluates a provider's performance in preparing educators to begin and remain teaching in Tennessee public schools.

Provider Impact

The Provider Impact domain reports on the effectiveness of a provider's cohort members in Tennessee public school classrooms.

Provider Impact is unscored this year.

Due to the COVID-19 public health emergency and related school closures, no teacher evaluation data is available from the 2019-20 school year. The evaluation data shown below is from the 2017-18, 2018-19, and 2020-21 school years. This data is provided for informational purposes, but EPPs will not receive a rating or score based on it.

Under state law, teachers had the opportunity to nullify their evaluation score for the 2020-21 school year due to COVID-related challenges. The scores of teachers who chose to nullify are not included in the Report Card.
