Provider Type

Private

The Department of Education at Christian Brothers University is a private school located in the middle of a diverse urban area in Memphis, Tennessee. It is a professional and collegial community of practice focused on the preparation of educators for contemporary schools, both public and private. We recognize that we are embedded within a unique university context that is both local and global in its character and mission, described as both Catholic and Lasallian. In keeping with the long-standing Lasallian tradition of teaching excellence, the Department of Education offers instructional leadership programming to equip leadership candidates in the areas of school leadership, management, supervision, teacher development, and improved student performance. Candidates will demonstrate an ability to improve student achievement and leadership in coaching others to raise student achievement, acquire in-depth knowledge of curriculum, instruction, and assessment within school leadership, and create opportunities to develop collaborative and cooperative relationships with all stakeholders.
