

Sports Gaming/Employee Ineligibility Notification

Pursuant to Section 4-49-112(a)(1) of the Tennessee Sports Gaming Act ("Act"), an officer or employee of the Tennessee Sports Wagering Advisory Council ("SWAC") shall not directly or indirectly wager or bet on a Sporting Event in Tennessee.¹ In addition, the SWAC prohibits an employee's spouse living in the employee's same household from directly or indirectly wagering or betting on a Sporting Event in Tennessee.

The SWAC shall maintain a confidential registry of persons and categories of persons who are ineligible to place a wager in this State and shall provide the registry to each Licensee in this State, with each Licensee maintaining the information confidentially. This document will be used by the SWAC to maintain the confidential registry of ineligible persons and the information contained herein will be provided to each Licensee.

You must provide the following information for yourself and your spouse residing in the same household in the principal place of residence. Please notify the General Counsel to the SWAC of any status changes for you or your spouse.
