

Economic Update, September 11, 2026
Submitted by Michael Mount

Summary:

Consumer inflation increased 0.4 percent in August, and earnings failed to keep up, with real earnings decreasing 0.1 percent. Consumers expect inflation at 3.6 percent over the next year compared with 3.4 percent over the last 12 months. Retail and Manufacturing after-tax profits increased strongly in the second quarter of 2026. Small business optimism decreased last week, but owners are reporting better business health and anticipating higher sales. Existing home sales decreased last month as mortgage interest rates continued to increase.
