Managing Jail Restrictive Housing Populations Training

When:
10/17/2022 to 10/20/2022
Class time: 0800

Where:
Homeland Security Building (Room C-113)
1075 Mullins Station Road
Memphis, TN 38134

About the training
The 4-day jail training program includes topics such as the following:

• Restrictive housing definitions and types, constitutional considerations, and court decisions
• Strategies to reduce the use of restrictive housing including preventing restrictive housing placement, ensuring this type of housing is used with the right populations, reducing lengths of stay and assisting people as they transition out of this setting
• Management strategies for people with serious mental illness and other special populations
• Organizational change approaches

The training program offers opportunities to share challenges and successes, and for peer-to-peer learning. Participants will leave the training with an action plan to address their department’s most pressing restrictive housing priorities.

Who should attend?
Each jail should plan to send a team of 3 made up of people in positions such as those listed below. Ensure your 3-person team is identified and available for the training dates prior to registering for this course. While there can be some flexibility in the team composition, the key is to send a team knowledgeable of your restrictive housing policies, practices, and population and that has influence over policy change in your department. Ideally, one person from each of the following categories would comprise a 3-person agency team.

1. Facility Leadership - Director of Corrections, Chief Deputy, Jail Administrator, Jail Commander, Sheriff, Under Sheriff
2. Chief of Programs/Security – Chief of Programs, Chief of Security, Classification Administrator
3. Mental Health Director or Supervisor

How do I register?
The attachment provides registration instructions for those without an NIC user account and for those with an existing account. Please read the instructions then click HERE to register. The deadline to register for this training opportunity is September 25, 2022.

Questions?
If you have questions about the makeup of your 3-person team or about registering for the training, please contact NIC’s Glenn Watson at g2watson@bop.gov.

October 24 - 28, 2022: location: Do Re Mi River Retreat 275 Cedar Bluff Road Hartsville, TN 37074

What is CISD:

CRITICAL INCIDENT STRESS DEBRIEFINGS

A critical incident is any event that is outside the typical range of experience for a person and has sufficient impact (or is likely to have sufficient impact) that it overwhelms the person’s usual effective coping abilities.

Typical critical incidents would include, but not be limited to:

- Line of duty death
- Incidents involving the use of deadly force or other life-threatening decisions
- Serious line-of-duty injuries to self or co-worker(s)
- Protracted incidents involving strong emotions over long periods of time (e.g., natural disasters, hostage situations, etc.)
- Incidents where there is a strong connection with the victim(s)
- Serious injury or death of a civilian, especially involving children
- Involvement in a number of moderately stressful incidents resulting in a cumulative effect.

The Critical Incident Stress Debriefing Team is comprised of law enforcement officers and trained mental health professionals who provide support and intervention services to public safety officers and their families to lessen the impact of major events. As a reactive service, the team will provide support to public safety personnel at the scene or after the encounter with the critical incident. The debriefing process will continue in ongoing support with additional personnel who have experienced similar situations being brought to the team, as necessary.
