

TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
EXCLUDED PARTIES LIST (Revised October 4, 2021)

Tennessee Department of Transportation regulations governing Contractor Debarment and Suspension, Chapter 1680-5-1, provide that business organizations or individual persons may be prohibited from participating in covered transactions with the Department by suspension, debarment, or voluntary exclusion.

Covered transactions include submitting a bid or proposal to the Department, entering into a new contract with the Department, or participating as a subcontractor at any level on any new contract with the Department. Covered transactions also include submitting a bid or proposal, entering into a new contract, or participating as a subcontractor at any level on any new contract for a local government project that is funded in whole or in part with Department funds.

Debarment prohibits a person from participating in covered transactions during the term of the debarment. Suspension immediately prohibits a person from participating in covered transactions for a temporary period, pending completion of a Department investigation and/or any judicial or administrative actions, including debarment, that may result. A voluntary exclusion means that the person has agreed to be excluded from participating in covered transactions under the terms of a settlement.

SUSPENSION LIST

In accordance with the Department's regulations governing Contractor Debarment and Suspension, the following persons were suspended by the Department on the date indicated and are temporarily prohibited from participating in covered transactions as described in the scope of suspension below for the time period indicated (which may be reduced or extended by subsequent action):

There are currently no persons on the Department's Suspension list.

DEBARMENT LIST

In accordance with the Department's regulations governing Contractor Debarment and Suspension, the following persons have been debarred by the Department on the date indicated and are currently prohibited from participating in covered transactions as described in the scope of debarment below for the time period indicated (which may be reduced or extended by subsequent action):

There are currently no persons on the Department's Debarment list.

VOLUNTARY EXCLUSION LIST

In accordance with the Department's regulations governing Contractor Debarment and Suspension, the following persons have agreed to a voluntary exclusion and are prohibited from participating in covered transactions as described in the scope of voluntary exclusion below for the time period indicated (which may be reduced or extended by subsequent action):

There are currently no persons on the Department's Voluntary Exclusion list.

FEDERAL EXCLUDED PARTIES LIST

In accordance with the Department's regulations governing Contractor Debarment and Suspension and the United States Department of Transportation regulations concerning Government wide Debarment and Suspension, 49 C.F.R., Part 29, persons who are suspended, debarred or otherwise subject to exclusion by a federal agency are prohibited from participating in, or acting as a principal of a person participating in, a covered transaction on Department projects or local government projects funded in whole or part with federal-aid funds.

To determine whether a person is so excluded, check the Excluded Parties List System (EPLS) maintained by the U.S. General Services Administration. To access the EPLS, visit the Internet website at <https://sam.gov/content/exclusions> or contact the U.S. Government Printing Office at (202) 783-3238.