A sufficient portion of top and bottom slabs, edges, and curb of existing structure shall be removed to accommodate the first full length beam to extend into footing. Rebar and/or new rebar shall be added where needed. Foundation shown on standard is used for extensions a portion of the existing which shall be removed to permit the sidewalls to pass through.