

REQUEST FOR TEMA HAZARDOUS MATERIALS SPECIALIST CERTIFICATION

The curriculum established for a Hazardous Materials Specialist Certification program is based on training standards developed by the Tennessee Emergency Management Agency utilizing OSHA requirements, NFPA 470 Standards for Hazardous Materials Specialist. The Certification criteria are based on a series of courses offered by TEMA. These courses are comprised of National Fire Academy courses, Federal Emergency Management Agency, Federal Office of Homeland Security, and courses developed by TEMA. These training courses require the demonstration of competencies through written examinations, hands-on demonstrations, field scenarios, and exercises.

Certification Checklist:

- An application filled out listing TEMA courses completed, by name, number, and date.
- A copy of the required prerequisite TEMA Course Certificate(s) or training transcript is attached to the application.
- Signature and date from the department training officer, or department head and applicant.
- Email or Send Drive with Digital Color Photo with Last Name, First Name, Middle Initial
- Application and attachments submitted to the TEMA Regional Office for verification and review.
