| REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP. A formalized training program accepted and recorded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Apprenticeship and/or approved by a recognized state apprenticeship agency/council. Such programs conform to the federal requirements of a structured and systematic training plan designed to meet industry standards.   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| NON-REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP. An apprenticeship program that is structured, systematic and progressive consisting of on-the-job training and related theoretical instruction that is not registered with the U.S. Department of Labor or state apprenticeship agency. The length of an apprenticeship is not less than 2,000 hours of full-time work experience.   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| ON-THE-JOB TRAINING. Programs involve a job that is learned in a practical way through a planned and systematic program of supervised training. There is a logical progression to the training allowing the trainee to move to the next higher classification based upon skills learned, not just length of service, and may or may not include theoretical training. The training period must be full-time, compensated employment that is not less than six months and not more than two years in length. |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
