

Letter of Intent: Achievement School District Charter School applying to Tennessee Public Charter School Commission

Any eligible Achievement School District (ASD) charter school operator intending to apply for authorization by the Tennessee Public Charter School Commission (Charter Commission) must file a Letter of Intent to the Charter Commission by October 15th of the school year prior to the school year the charter school would operate under the Charter Commission. This letter must be delivered to the Charter Commission and the Tennessee Department of Education no later than October 15th at 11:59p.m. Central Time. When the October 15th deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or State observed holiday, the letter of intent is due on the next business day.

Submit the letter of intent via email to the Charter Commission at CharterSchool.Appeals@tn.gov and Tennessee Department of Education at charter.schools@tn.gov.

An application fee of $2,500 must be submitted by November 15th. Checks or money orders should be made out to the State of Tennessee–Tennessee Public Charter School Commission. Please mail the check or money order via USPS with attention to Maggie Lund to the Charter Commission’s address: Davy Crockett Tower, 5th Floor, 500 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville TN 37243. We also recommend requesting tracking information as additional assurance). Once received, the Charter Commission will follow up to confirm receipt. Failure to submit the application fee will result in the application not being accepted by the Charter Commission.

Applicant Eligibility

Tennessee law limits the charter schools that may apply directly for authorization under the Charter Commission to qualifying charter schools authorized by the ASD. Please read the following statements and confirm eligibility to apply:

An ASD-authorized school allowed to apply to the Charter Commission based on the determination of the Commissioner of Education under T.C.A. 49-1-614(k)(2)(B).

An ASD-authorized school allowed to apply to the Charter Commission by meeting the priority exit criteria set forth in the state's accountability model under T.C.A. 49-1-614(k)(4).

Conflict of Interest

Please identify any potential conflicts of interest that you or any governing board member may have in the space below. This is in alignment with best practices for both non-profit and charter school governance and is also aligned with T.C.A. § 49-13-111(g), which states “with regard to conflicts of interest, the governing body of a charter school shall be subject to T.C.A. §§ 12-4-101 and 12-4-102. These portions of Tennessee law govern public contracts and personal interests of officers and boards of directors.
