Dear Libby:

Please find enclosed the agenda for our August 11 meeting. I have made arrangements to have lunch delivered at noon, prior to beginning our working session.

Later this week, I will be sending you some ideas that I have about possible topics and procedures to consider for our working session on the campaign finance laws.

As to the financial documents that Randy Nichols volunteered to make available in his attorney's office for our review, Mr. Nichols has only provided three documents to the staff as of this date. Those documents include a letter from the FDIC as to the amount of the payoff on his original 1982 loan from United American Bank for his 1982 D.A.'s race and two documents showing transfers of that loan to two other financial institutions. Therefore, we have been unable to conduct a review of his records at this time.

I have made arrangements to have lunch delivered from The Cooker next Tuesday. (I will pay for everyone's lunch and then get reimbursed by the state.) I am sending you a menu for you to decide what you would like to eat. Please call us with your order or fax the menu back to us with your order circled. I will have soft drinks and coffee also available.

We look forward to seeing you next Tuesday. Please let us know if you need anything else prior to the meeting.

Sincerely,

Peggy Nance Williams
Executive Director
