

Autumn Lowry, PH.D., LCSW

Program Manager and Supervisor Suicide Prevention

James H. Quillen VA Medical Center

Dr. Autumn Lowry is the Suicide Prevention Program Manager at the James H. Quillen VA Medical Center (Mountain Home). Prior to that, she served the Suicide Prevention Team in Knoxville as their Community Engagement and Partnership Coordinator (CEPC). Autumn is a native Appalachian whose primary passion is working in rural Appalachia to end Veteran suicide and the stigma surrounding mental health.

Dr. Lowry also teaches social work courses at the University of Tennessee Knoxville. When she isn't working, she loves spending time with her foster children, managing her local community's theatre, and taking her dogs on hikes in the beautiful Smoky Mountains.
