

Lisa Ware
Quality & Appeals Specialist
Tennessee Department of Veterans Services

Lisa Ware joined the Tennessee Department of Veterans Services (TDVS) in January 2021 and currently serves as team lead for the Local Appeals Team in the Appeals & Accreditation Division. She came to TDVS from the Cheatham County Veterans Service Office.

Lisa grew up in Nashville, Tennessee. Between high school and college, she was an EMT in and around Atlanta, Georgia for 3 years. After college, she worked for 6 years in Architectural Engineering. She stopped working to start a family and homeschool her 2 children.

In June 2012, Lisa began serving Veterans by volunteering with a local Veterans group in Cheatham County. In 2015, Lisa joined the Cheatham County Veterans Service Office as an administrative assistant. She was subsequently awarded accreditation and continued serving Veterans as an accredited representative. She served the Veterans of Cheatham County until joining TDVS in January 2021.

Lisa is mom to Ian & and his wife Gaby (who works as a PT doctor at James H. Quillen VAMC) & Abigail (who works at the Robertson County Veteran Service Office) & her husband Dan.