

Louis J. George
Special Counsel
National Veterans Legal Services Program

Mr. Louis J. George is Special Counsel to NVLSP, focusing on matters at the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims (CAVC) and training. He also serves as NVLSP's VSO liaison and is an editor of The Veterans Benefits Manual. Mr. George returned to NVLSP in 2023, after serving as an Attorney for the Office of the General Counsel at the Social Security Administration in Boston, Massachusetts. He began his previous tenure at NVLSP in 1998, serving as a Staff Attorney and Senior Staff Attorney before being named Director of Training and Publications, a position he held from 2013 to 2015.

Mr. George has a long history of public service and defending veterans rights. In addition to his tenure at NVLSP, his experience includes work as an associate counsel with the Board of Veterans' Appeals and as a law clerk with the Board for Correction of Military Records of the Coast Guard.

Mr. George is from Danvers, Massachusetts, where he lives with his wife Ellen Dempsey, and is active in local and community affairs. He is a graduate of Salem State University (B.S., summa cum laude, 1989). He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1992), and is a member of the Massachusetts and District of Columbia bars. Among his professional activities, Mr. George was President of the Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims Bar Association, and was a member of the Rules Advisory Committee of the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims.
