

Lisa Ware
Director of Training
Tennessee Department of Veterans Services

Lisa Ware joined the Tennessee Department of Veterans Services (TDVS) in January 2021. She served as team lead for the Local Appeals Team in the Appeals & Accreditation Division for 4 years and now serves as the training director.

Lisa grew up in Nashville, Tennessee. Between high school and college, she was an EMT in and around Atlanta, Georgia for 3 years. After college, she worked for 6 years in Architectural Engineering. She stopped working to start a family and homeschool her 2 children.

In June 2012, Lisa began serving Veterans by volunteering with a local Veterans group in Cheatham County. In March 2015, she joined the Cheatham County Veterans Service Office as an administrative assistant and quickly became an accredited service officer. She served the Veterans of Cheatham County until joining TDVS in January 2021.

Lisa is mom to Ian and his wife Gaby (who is a PT doctor at the Durham, NC VAMC) & Abigail who works at the Robertson County TN Veterans Service Office and her husband, Dan.
