

Prevailing Wage Commission Special Meeting on May 14, 2025 Rule Changes

The transcript details the May 14, 2025, meeting of the Tennessee Department of Labor and Workforce Development's Prevailing Wage Commission. Key points include:

1. Roll Call and Quorum: Chairman Dewayne Scott confirmed the presence of members, establishing a quorum.
2. Agenda Approval: The agenda was adopted unanimously after a motion and second.
3. Revisions to Prevailing Wage Commission Rules:
 - General Counsel Chance Deason explained the process for rule revisions, including consultations with the Attorney General's Office and approval from the Governor's Office.
 - Minor stylistic changes were made, with no substantive alterations.
 - The finalized version of the rules was clarified and approved unanimously via a voice vote.
4. Upcoming Meetings:
 - The September 11, 2025, meeting was rescheduled to September 4, 2025, due to scheduling conflicts.
 - Meetings on November 12 and November 18, 2025, were confirmed.
5. Adjournment: The meeting concluded with no further discussions.

The transcript also includes procedural details, such as the certification of the document by the court reporter.